INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

EXHIBIT CSECURITY AGREEMENT IN THE NATURE OF A CHATTEL MORTGAGE

AGREEMENT MADE as of the 29th day of April, 1983, between RAI-TWO MORTGAGE CORPORATION, an Delaware corporation, having its principal office at 230 Park Avenue, New York, New York, 10169 (the "Purchaser") and H. Emerson Thomas, Sr. residing at 34 Cowperthwaite Place, Westfield, New Jersey 07090, H. Emerson Thomas, Jr. residing at 222 Prince Street, West Newton, Massachusetts 02165 and Gordon B. Thomas, residing at 101 Post Kennel Road, Bernardsville, New Jersey 07924 (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Seller").

WHEREAS, in consideration of the payment of TEN DOLLARS ($10.00), lawful money of the United States, paid by each to the other and of the undertakings hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration;

IT IS HEREBY AGREED that:

1. THE NOTE

Undertaking. To induce the Seller to enter into a Purchase and Sale Agreement dated as of April 29, 1983, (as now and hereafter modified, the "Agreement") with the Purchaser for the sale to Purchaser of the railroad tank cars listed on Exhibit A hereto (the "Equipment"), and to induce the Seller to accept as partial payment for the Equipment a promissory note in the principal amount of $960,000 as provided for by the Agreement (the "Note") the all documents delivered in connection with the Agreement (the "Documents"), and full and complete performance of all obligations under the Documents, (all of the aforesaid obligations, the "Obligations"), the Purchaser hereby grants to and creates in the Seller, a security interest in the Equipment, together with all accessions, additions, and improvements to, and substitutions and replacements for the Equipment.

2. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS.

2.1 General. The Purchaser hereby makes the representations and warranties and enters into the covenants provided for in this Paragraph 2. Unless otherwise specified, all representations and warranties shall be true and all covenants shall be met in accordance with their terms, at the time this agreement is executed and at all times thereafter until the Obligations are fully paid.

2.2 General Representations. The Purchaser represents to the Seller that:

A. It is a corporation duly organized and in good standing under the laws of the state of its organization, has the power to own its properties and operate its business as now owned and operated and as contemplated hereunder; it is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its activities and, when commenced, its future activities, or where the character of such present or future business or its present and future property, makes such qualification necessary; and

B. All corporate and other action has been duly and effectively taken by it which is necessary for the authorization, execution, delivery and performance of this Security Agreement and such execution, delivery and performance is not prohibited by and does not violate its Certificate of Incorporation or By-Laws or any agreement to which it is a party or any laws, statutes, regulations or the like of any governmental authority having jurisdiction; and

C. This Security Agreement constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, without defense, setoff or counterclaim;

2.2 Representations and Covenants with Respect to Equipment.

The Purchaser represents to and covenants with the Seller with respect to its Equipment that:

A. The Equipment is used primarily in business and the Seller has a first lien thereon; and

B. Except for the security interest granted hereby, the Purchaser will keep the Equipment free from any adverse lien, security interest and encumbrance and in good order and repair and will not waste or destroy the same or any part thereof; and the Purchaser will not use any such Equipment in violation of any statute or ordinance; and

C. The Purchaser will pay promptly when due all taxes and assessments upon such Equipment, or for its use or operation; and

D. The Purchaser shall not use such Equipment except in the ordinary course of its business, substantially in the same manner as presently conducted, nor sell the same, without prior written consent of the Seller.

2.4 Covenants. The Purchaser covenants with the Seller that it will do all of the following:

A. Pay and discharge when due all taxes and other obligations.

B. Promptly notify the Seller in writing of its opening of any new places of business or closing of any existing places of business.

C. Sign such financing statements or other documents in form satisfactory to the Seller which the Seller may at any time desire to file in order to protect or perfect its security interest in the Equipment and reimburse the Seller for the costs of filing the same and execute and deliver to the Seller any instrument, document, assignment or other writing which may be necessary or convenient to the Seller to carry out the terms of this Security Agreement and to perfect its security interest in the Equipment.

D. Deliver to the Seller with reasonable promptness such data as the Seller may reasonably request.

E. Promptly notify the Seller of the occurrence of an Event of Default and take such action with respect thereto as the Seller directs.

2.5 Negative Covenants. The Purchaser covenants with the Seller that it will not do any of the following:

A. Create any mortgage, pledge, hypothecation, assignment, encumbrance, charge or other lien or security interest upon any of the Equipment on Exhibit A except to the Seller in compliance with the terms of this Security Agreement, those which may be created in conjunction with the sale permitted under subparagraph B of this Section 2.5, and those existing on the Equipment upon the purchase of the same by Purchaser pursuant to the Agreement.

B. Sell the Equipment, except in the regular course of business to Spica Associates, a Delaware limited partnership, which sale shall be subject and subordinate to this Security Agreement.

3. DEFAULTS.

3.1. Defaults. If any one or more of the following events (each, an "Event of Default") occurs, the entire unpaid balance of the principal and interest of the Note may, at the Seller's option, become immediately due and payable without notice, namely:

A. Any representation or warranty made herein or in the Documents, or in connection with the making of the Note or any certificate, statement or report made in compliance with this Security Agreement or the Agreement is false in any respect when made or when required to be true hereunder or by the Documents.

B. Failure by the Purchaser to make any payment of interest or principal or other payment under the Note.

C. Failure by the Purchaser to perform or observe any term, condition, or covenant of this Security Agreement or the Agreement, or any document now or hereafter executed in connection herewith or with the Agreement.

D. Any adjudication that the Purchaser is insolvent or bankrupt, become a debtor under the Bankruptcy Code (including reorganization under Chapter 11 or an adjustment of debts under Chapter 13 of such Code, as the same may be amended, modified or supplemented), or the filing of a petition by or against it for relief under any provisions of any statute or law relating to bankruptcy, or the making of any assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the appointment of a receiver or trustee for all or any part of its property.

4. Remedies and Subordination.

4.1 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Purchaser will immediately repay, upon demand, all of the amounts then due under the Note, and in addition to its rights at law, under the UCC or hereunder or under any other document, the Seller may:

A. Without further notice or demand or legal process take possession of the Equipment, all records and items relating to the Equipment and;

B. Sell the Equipment, but the Seller shall give the Purchaser reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale of its Equipment or of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition thereof is to be made. The requirement of reasonable notice shall be met if notice of the sale or other intended disposition is mailed, by certified mail, postage prepaid, to the Purchaser at its address specified hereunder at least ten days prior to the time of such sale or disposition. At such sale the Seller may sell the Equipment for cash or upon credit or otherwise, at such prices and upon such terms as it deems advisable and the Seller may bid or become purchaser at such sale, free of the right of redemption, which is hereby waived. The Seller may adjourn such sales at the time and place fixed therefor without further notice or advertisement, and may sell the Equipment as an entirety or in separate lots as it deems advisable, but the Seller shall not be obligated to sell all or any part of the Equipment at the time and place fixed for such sale if it determines not to do so.

4.2 Proceeds. The proceeds of any sale or other disposition of the Equipment shall be applied as follows:

A. To the payment of the expenses of such sale; and

B. To the payment of the expense of retaking, keeping and storing the Equipment, including any attorneys' fees expended incidental thereto; and then,

C. To the satisfaction of all indebtedness referred to in Paragraph 4.3 hereof; and then,

D. To the payment of the Note. In the case of a surplus such surplus shall be provided to the Purchaser.

4.3 Subordination. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, the parties hereto hereby acknowledge that the lien created by this Security Agreement in the Equipment in favor of the Seller shall at all times be subject and subordinate to the liens in the Equipment granted to Fidelity Union Bank ("Fidelity") and Mallard Transportation Company ("Mallard") by security agreements in the nature of chattel mortgages, dated December 17, 1982 and as of December 17, 1982, respectively, ("Lenders' Agreements"). Seller agrees that so long as any indebtedness remains due to either Fidelity or Mallard under the Notes secured by the Lenders' Agreements, any and all funds or assets received, by Seller pursuant to any action taken by Seller under this Paragraph 4, shall be promptly delivered to Fidelity and/or Mallard to be applied in the manner set forth in Paragraph 4.2 hereof.

5. MISCELLANEOUS.

5.1 Definitions. For the purpose of this Security Agreement the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

A. First Lien. A fully perfected first lien against good and marketable absolute or fee simple title to the Equipment in question, free of all liens and encumbrances whatever, other than those acceptable to Seller, perfected by recording, filing or otherwise, so that such lien is prior and paramount to the lien or claim of any other party, except liens existing on the date of purchase of the Equipment.

B. UCC. As of any time, the Uniform Commercial Code then in effect in the State of New Jersey.

5.2 Waivers, Etc. The Purchaser hereby waives any notice of presentment, demand for payment, protest and notice of protest of non-payment of the same and notice of any facts which might increase the Purchaser's risk hereunder and all notices required by law, all defenses, setoffs and counterclaims. The Purchaser hereby further agrees that its obligation to pay the Note is absolute and shall in no way be impaired by the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of all or part of this Security Agreement or the Agreement or any document now or hereafter executed in connection therewith, or the failure of the Seller to protect or perfect all or any part of the Equipment; and the Seller is hereby authorized to surrender, in whole or in part, the Note or release anyone obligated for the payment therefor. No delay or failure by the Seller to exercise any right or privilege shall operate as a waiver of such or of any other right or privilege and no waiver shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the Seller.

5.3 Construction. This Security Agreement shall be construed under New Jersey law, and federal law to the extent applicable, and references to the plural shall include the singular and others and references to the singular shall include the plural as the context requires. The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of one or more provisions of this Security Agreement or the Note shall in no way affect the Seller's rights under the remaining portions of this Security Agreement or such Note.

5.4 Notices. Notices to the Seller and the Purchaser shall be effective when mailed by first class, certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid at the addresses set forth in the introduction to this Security Agreement.

5.5 Counterparts. This Security Agreement may be executed in counterparts each of which shall be deemed to be an original and when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written above.
